Forty-sixth Annual Commencement Conducted at Central Christian Church Thursday Night.

ENJOYABLE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Inspiring Address is Delivered by Dr. George Mackintosh, President of Wabash College.

Impressive exercises marked the forty-sixth annual commencement of the Shields high school which was conducted at the Central Christian church Thursday night when diplomas were presented to forty-six seniors who have successfully completed the prescribed course of study. An inspiring address was delivered by Dr. George Mackintosh, president of Wabash College, who spoke on the subject, "The Garment of Life." Delightful musical numbers featured the program.

Thomas A. Mott, superintendent of the city schools, presided at the exercises. He introduced Dr. Mackintosh who referred casually to the economic conditions of life and said he proposed to discuss the opposite side of the question, that of making the most of life after it is earned. "The Garment of Life" he said, is composed of all the materials and elements which enter into one's career. He emphasized the necessity of education and said it enables one to know first of all what "raw materials" are on hand with which life may be constructed.

The speaker said that the elements of heredity and environment may be important in the shaping of a life, but that the most important element was that of individual will power. He used the successful career of Booker T. Washington as an illustration. Born of parents in slavery and surrounded by the most unfavorable and adverse conditions, Washington early in life saw an opportunity to help his race. By his own perseverance and endeavor, it was pointed out, he secured an education and acquired a place of international prominence in social and educational activities. All three of these elements, the speaker said, go in to forge one's destiny, but the most influential is that of will power as it overcomes either heredity or environment.

Opportunity is found everywhere, the speaker said, but the individual must have vision to see the chances of life and the ability to execute successfully. He pointed out that if Scott or Dickens were living in Seymour they would find enough characters in a short time to fill many volumes the same as they did in their own communities. They had the ability to make the most of their surroundings. He said that Edison could never write a poem and James Whitecomb Riley could have never invented a machine because the ability of the two men ran in opposite directions. The scholar learns through education what he is best fitted for and then it is with will power that he executes the task.

Education makes life interesting, the speaker declared. Through it one is able to look forward to a goal and to work for that end. The goal, he said, must be placed far enough ahead so that it cannot be reached, for then life loses its interest. He told of a man who had ability to earn money rapidly and amassed a great fortune, but his ambition was won and he ended his life because the future promised no interest for him.

The speaker emphasized the principles of courage, he said, life cannot be a success, both physical and moral, temperance, justice and wisdom. Without courage, he said, life cannot be a success. By the term temperance, he explained, that he meant the proper mixture of all things of life that the career might be well rounded for life's work. Justice was emphasized as highly important while wisdom is the doing of the best one can with what one has on hand.

Speaking to the class, Dr. Mackintosh, declared that the members were standing on the threshold of a new era, but he could not foresee that it was to be much different in some respects from those which have come in the past. Opportunities will be numerous, new conditions will arise, the same as in the past, and leaders will be needed to take their places among men. He congratulated the class upon its successful completion of its school work in this city and his wish was that each member might fully enjoy all the good things that enter into a successful and useful life.

Kate Andrews, high school principal, was rounded applauded when she appeared to present the class to the audience. She spoke of the splendid work done by the members and of the large field for successful endeavor which stretched out before them. Harry B. Henderson, county superintendent, gave a short talk on the value to the public of its investment in the public schools, before presenting the diplomas.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. W. E. Carroll, pastor of the

LOUIS I. FOIST IS LIGHTNING VICTIM

Redding Township Farmer Killed Instantly During Electrical Storm Late Thursday.

SISTER-IN-LAW IS STUNNED

Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Depot at Hayden Struck and is Destroyed by Fire—Damage to Crops.

Louis Irwin Foist, aged thirty-eight years, a Redding township farmer, was killed instantly and Mrs. Harry Foist, a sister-in-law, was stunned by lightning during an electrical storm which swept east of this city late Thursday afternoon. Mr. Foist had gone to the farm of his father, James Foist, in Jennings county, to do some work and when the storm approached he went towards the house and joined his mother and sister-in-law who were sitting under a large tree in the yard.

The storm approached rapidly and one of the first flashes of lightning struck the tree. Mr. Foist was killed instantly and his sister-in-law was rendered unconscious but her condition is not serious. Mr. Foist's mother escaped unhurt.

Mr. Foist was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Foist and had lived in Redding township, Jackson county, for a number of years. He was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Welsh, of Brown's Corner, and to them two children were born. The deceased is survived by his widow, two children, his parents, who live in Jennings county, and several brothers and sisters. This is the first death that has occurred in this vicinity from lightning this summer.

The Jennings county coroner conducted an inquest here today. The funeral of Mr. Foist will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Reddingtown.

The storm swept in a limited area and its center of velocity was in the vicinity of Hayden. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad passenger depot at

TWO BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

Cooke and Allen Waive Preliminary Hearing—Bonds Fixed at $1,000 in Each Case.

HENDERSON BOYS HELD HERE

Father of Two Brothers is Arranging to Get Them Out on Bond—Returns to Brown County.

F. S. Cooke and William C. Allen, two of the men brought to this city from Columbus Thursday afternoon to face three charges filed against them as a result of an attempt to steal two barrels of whiskey from a Pennsylvania freight car early on the morning of June 4, waived preliminary hearing when arraigned before Mayor C. W. Burkart in city court. They were bound over to circuit court and their bonds were fixed at $1,000 in each of the three cases pending against them. The men were unable to furnish bail and were taken to the county jail at Brownstown to await the opening of circuit court which will convene next October.

Forrest and Fred Henderson, brothers, who were arrested with Cooke and Williams at Columbus, after the freight car had been broken open in this city, were arraigned in city court Thursday afternoon on the three charges, burglary, entering a car to commit a felony and carrying

PRISONER HAD $150 HIDDEN IN HIS HAT

Sheriff McCord Finds Money When Searching Men Bound Over to Circuit Court.

H. L. McCord, county sheriff, does not believe in taking chances with ex-convicts sent to the county jail for safe keeping. While searching F. S. Cooke, who with William C. Allen, was bound over to circuit court Thursday afternoon by Mayor C. W. Burkart he found $150 which had been carefully stored under the lining of the prisoner's hat.

The prisoners, who were arrested at Columbus following the attempt to steal two barrels of whiskey from a freight car in this city were carefully searched by the officers at that place at which time some hack saws and other burglar paraphernalia was found concealed about their person, together with about $800 in money. However, the officers evidently overlooked the $150 hidden in Cooke's hat. Sheriff McCord deposited the money in the bank and will return it to the prisoner when he is released from custody in this county.

MRS. RALPH PRICHARD DIES OF TUBERCULOSIS

Husband of Deceased is With American Expeditionary Forces in France.

Mrs. Beatrice Slagel Prichard, wife of Ralph Prichard, passed away at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slagle, 29 South Broadway street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon following an illness of several months with tuberculosis. The deceased was twenty-five years old.

The husband of the deceased is in France with the American Expeditionary Forces and a message has been sent to him announcing the death. Besides the husband the deceased is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slagle, one sister, Mary Frances Slagle and one brother, Albert Slagle, together with several relatives and many friends.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ANOTHER ARREST IN WILKINS CASE

John Gully, Alleged Deserter From Army, Held in Kansas City by Civil Authorities.

TESTIMONY OF KESSLER

Declares That Gully Was Last Man With Former Hayden Woman Who Was Recently Murdered.

John Gully, wanted in connection with the murder of Miss Maye Wilkins, formerly of Hayden, whose body was found in a cistern at the home of her brother-in-law, Henry Darringer, in Indianapolis, has been arrested in Kansas City, according to information received in Indianapolis.

A Indianapolis dispatch says:

John Gully, alleged deserter, wanted by the police in connection with the murder of Miss Maye Wilkins, whose body was found in a cistern in the rear of her home at 269 Hendricks Place, Saturday, May 31, was arrested in Kansas City, Mo., June 9, by the civil authorities, it was learned yesterday in a telegram to Jerry Kinney, supervisor of detectives. He is being held by army authorities at Fort Leavenworth. The telegram was sent from Camp Custer, Mich., by Claud Worley, detective sergeant, who left Indianapolis Wednesday in an effort to find Gully and to investigate other points in the story told by George G. Kesler, who is under arrest charged with the murder of Miss Wilkins.

Kessler, who gave himself up to the police a week ago Tuesday, has maintained that Gully was the man last with Miss Wilkins on Wednesday, May 31, the night before she was reported missing. He said he

MAKES INQUIRY ABOUT WOMAN SUFFRAGE SENTIMENT

Governor Goodrich Sends Telegram to Governors of Many States About Special Session.

By United Press

Indianapolis, June 13.—Governor Goodrich today sent telegrams to the governors of thirty-one states sounding out sentiment as to woman's suffrage. The governor says he will call a special session of the legislature to vote on the amendment if sufficient other states so do. "The question of ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution is now before the various states," the telegram said. "The sentiment in Indiana is decidedly for the ratification of the amendment, but before deciding the advisability of calling the Indiana legislature I am anxious to get the sentiment of the other states whose legislatures do not meet in ordinary sessions this year. What is the sentiment in your state? Are you willing to call a special session of your general assembly in the event enough other states decide to take the same action to insure the ratification of the amendment early in 1920. I will appreciate your reply to this and if you desire your answer to be treated as confidential, it will be so regarded."

The foregoing was sent to governors of the states whose legislatures do not meet before the next general election. Before dispatching the message, Governor Goodrich received a telegram from Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt approving the plan as an excellent idea.

35,000 KEYMEN SAID TO HAVE JOINED NATION WIDE STRIKE

Konenkamp Declares That Number of Strikers Now Exceeds Union Membership.

By United Press

Chicago, June 13.—Between 35,000 and 40,000 strikers will have joined the nation wide strike called by the commercial telegraphers union of America by tomorrow, S. J. Konenkamp, president, predicted here today. Konenkamp declared this figure exceeded the union membership, explaining that many non-union men had walked out. Much enthusiasm was prevalent among union officials here today, the result of decision of railroad telegraphers to refuse commercial business after 6 a. m. Saturday and the promised telephone strike next Monday unless Barleson intervenes, according to decision reached at Atlantic City yesterday.

ORLANDO AND DIAZ HAVE LEFT PARIS

Italians, By Departure for Home, Indicate That General Conference Work is Ended.

ALLIED REPLY EXPECTED SOON

Italian Parliament Called For Secret Session to Hear Report of Peace Delegates.

By United Press

Paris, June 13.—Premier Orlando and General Diaz left for Rome last night, convinced that the work of the big five is practically completed and that no more fundamental decisions will be reached by that body concerning the peace settlement.

This action was assumed to mean that the allied reply to the German peace proposals would be definitely completed before night. The allied commission appointed to draft the reply to the German counter proposals began work this morning after receiving nine reports from the big four upon which to base the formal document. The reply, it was learned from an authoritative source, provides for Germany's admission to the league of nations within a short time.

Orlando, it is understood, intends to call a secret session of the Italian parliament to present a report on the work of the peace conference. In Italian circles, it was reported here today, that the Jugo-Slavs having refused to compromise of the Adriatic question, Orlando wrote to President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George and Premier Clemenceau, asking strict execution of the pact of London.

J. T. Abell, chief of police, has received a letter from his son, Gilard Abell, stating that he would arrive home today or Friday. He has been in France for several months past in the medical department of the U. S. army. He will be discharged from Camp Sherman, O.

Harry Carter, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Carter, West Fourth street, returned to New York this afternoon, where he will be stationed on the U. S. S. New Mexico. He expects to sail for California about July 1.

Mrs. D. I. Abbott, of Bedford, attended the commencement Thursday evening. Her niece, Miss Stella Gossett, was a member of the class.

Judge J. R. Carney, of North Vernon, was here Thursday afternoon enroute to his home from Scottsburg.

HOLDS TREATY AND COVENANT ARE ONE

Wilson to Make Determined Fight to Prevent Separation by the Senate.

LINES FOR BATTLE DRAWN

President May Go Before Senate and Tell His Idea of Impending Danger.

(By Robert J. Bender, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, June 13.—Regarding the peace treaty proper and the league of nations covenant as one and inseparable, President Wilson is expected to make a determined fight to prevent division of the two—in effect or in fact—by the United States senate.

While the only official comment forthcoming early today was that the president is not disturbed by the "Knox" resolutions, it is known he is watching developments in the senate and certainly will guide democratic action when Knox begins his fight next Tuesday.

The lines are now well drawn and the battle over the resolution promises to be one of the most bitterly contested political affairs in the history of the senate.

From the time President Wilson first left American shores for Paris, he has held the league of nations to be the foremost objective of this country. He let it be known to his confidants at the outset that he regarded America's participation in the conference useless unless the allies agree to make the league part and parcel of the treaty.

Now that his peace objective is threatened by the senate republican the president is expected to take one of three courses:

Either publicly tell the senate of what he may regard as the danger to the whole peace program if the Knox resolution is passed now.

Or privately direct the senate democrats to filibuster indefinitely against the resolution until he can return to the United States and take up the fight in behalf of the league;

Or, accept the republican challenge and demand a test vote on the measure.

FEDERATION OF LABOR DIVIDED ON BOOZE ISSUE

400 Delegates to Atlantic City Convention to go to Washington to Fight Prohibition.

By United Press

Atlantic City, N. J., June 13.—Four hundred delegates to the American Federation of Labor convention here plan to go to Washington on a special train tomorrow, to participate in an anti-prohibition demonstration before the capital. Special trains will also carry demonstrators from New York, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, according to the arrangements.

"We are asking congress not to enact legislation against 2.75 per cent beer and light wines," said John B. Colpoys, a delegate from Washington, D. C. "We are agitating in the interests of 300,000 brewery workers who will be out of jobs under prohibition, and 400,000 others whose jobs will be affected."

A minority of the delegates, led by James Duncan, Seattle federated unions, will not attend the demonstration.

"They're going to attend the funeral of John Barleycorn," said Duncan. "Prohibition is a dead issue and they don't know it."

LAWRENCE EBNER IN AN AUTO SMASH-UP

Former Resident of This City Has Exciting Time with "Road Hog" Near Vincennes.

The Vincennes Sun says: A combination of "road-hogging" and careless driving by the driver of a Ford roadster on the Wheatland road, twelve miles east of the city, was responsible for slight damages to the Franklin car owned and driven by Lawrence A. Ebner, president of the Ebner Ice and Cold Storage plant. The fact that Mr. Ebner pulled his Franklin completely out of the road as near as a ditch would permit, was all that prevented further damages.

Mr. Ebner and family were returning from Washington about 10 o'clock. A large truck was creeping along on the highway, and further down the road came a Ford roadster, followed by a cloud of dust.

Mr. Ebner saw that the driver of the Ford intended to pass between his car and the truck, and realizing the distance between the two vehicles too narrow to permit the passage of even a Ford, pulled the Franklin out of the road and waited. The Ford never hesitated but started in between the truck and the Franklin. The Ford struck the rear fender of the Franklin, smashing the fender. The car was not otherwise seriously damaged and Mr. Ebner was able to drive in on his own power. He neglected to take the number of the Ford car, but stated his opinion that the Ford belongs in Washington.

EMBARGOES CHECK EXPORTS OF AUTOMOBILES FROM U. S.

Truck and Motor Car Shortage Resulting in Europe—Investigation by Hanch.

By United Press

Washington, June 13.—A tremendous automobile and truck shortage, is fast developing in Europe because of embargoes on motor vehicles, now in force in England, France and Italy, says Secretary C. C. Hanch of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

Hanch, who has just returned from a four months' investigation tour of Europe, declared that European markets could "use up every American car and truck now available over domestic requirements," if the embargoes were lifted.

So strong is the demand there, he said that second-hand cars are selling at twice the figures paid for them, when new, a few years ago.

"Importers of American cars abroad," Hanch stated, "have made strong pleas for raising of the embargoes now that the war is over. But the only country to act is Great Britain, who has permitted importation of one-fourth of that imported in 1913. France and Italy have taken no action. It is worth noting that there is only one car for every 400 people in France, one for every 225 in Great Britain, while there is one for every 18 in this country."

Hanch declared that the automobile industry has greatly expanded in Europe, because of the many factories which have sprung up during the war. He said, however, that the plants will never be able to compete with the American product, because they are not designed nor are the workers trained for producing in "mass production." And although these factories have much increased the supply of cars and trucks abroad, they are far from enough.

Exports of American motor car manufacturers are at the rate of about $125,000,000 a year, which is about ten per cent. of their total business, and with the lifting of embargoes this amount will show a material increase, said Hanch.

ing concealed weapons, and pleaded not guilty in each. Elihu Henderson, father of the boys, was present at the court and stated that he believed that he would be able to furnish bond for his sons.

Upon the recommendation of Captain Nutter, chief of detectives of the Pennsylvania railroad detective, who has been investigating the cases against the Henderson boys, their bonds were reduced to $200 in each case. The father left Thursday afternoon for Brown county to see if he could raise the bond. He told the local officials that he was worth considerable more than the two bonds amounted to himself and that he had a number of friends at Nashville who would assist him in getting his boys released from jail.

It was a sad scene when the boys and the father, who is about fifty years old, greeted each other at the city jail here Thursday. Upon seeing his two sons behind the bars the Brown county farmer was overcome with sobs and was unable to talk for several minutes. He told the officials that this was the first time his boys had ever been in trouble and he was at loss to know any reason that would cause them to be connected with the gang with whom they were arrested.

The Henderson boys have been working in Indianapolis for the past two years and it was at that place they say they became acquainted with Cooke and Allen. According to Captain Nutter, Cooke and Allen both have criminal records. It is understood that Cooke is now under a heavy bond in the Monroe circuit court at Bloomington where a criminal case is pending against him.

Upon leaving here Mr. Henderson told the officials that he believed that he could make the trip to Brown county and back by Saturday morning. Until he returns the Henderson boys will be held in the city jail. Thomas M. Honan is representing the Hendersons. Deputy Prosecutor Kamman is being assisted by E. P. Elsner, attorney for the Pennsylvania railroad company in this city.

As the Hours Pass the Coming of Baby Draws Nearer—Are You Prepared?

No woman awaiting the joy of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without using the wonderful penetrating application, Mothers' Friend.

By its regular use throughout the period the system is prepared for the coming event and strain and tension is relieved. It renders the broad, flat abdominal muscles pliant and they readily yield to nature's demand for expansion. As a result the nerves are not drawn upon with that peculiar wrenching strain, and nausea, nervousness, bearing-down and stretching pains are counteracted. The abdomen expands easily when baby arrives and the hours at the crisis are naturally less. Pain and danger as a consequence is avoided.

Mother's Friend not only allays distress in advance, but assures a speedy recovery for the mother. The skin is kept soft and smooth and natural and free from disfigurement.

Write to the Bradfield Regulator Company, Dept. J, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Motherhood Book, and procure a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist. It is just as standard as anything you can think of.

PSI IOTA XI ANNIVERSARY.

The following clipping is taken from the Columbus Republican.

Stanley Switzer, of this city, is among the guests listed:

The sixteenth anniversary of the organization of the local chapter of the Psi Iota Xi Sorority was charmingly observed last night with a dinner dance given at the Tea Room and the Moose hall.

The dinner was served at 8 o'clock at the Tea Room, which was tastefully adorned for the occasion with the sorority colors of gold and blue. There were two long tables with center bouquets of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses, while other summer flowers adorned either end and tapered hooded in the sorority colors lent a soft radiance. The place cards, which combined the programs for the dance following, were the exquisite work of Miss Mary Lincoln. Covers were laid for forty-eight.

After the dinner the dance was held at the Moose hall which had been decorated with gold and blue. A charming program of dance and music was furnished by Beemans Irristible Jazz Band, of Indianapolis. The presence of several boys and girls, who are home from the various colleges and schools for the summer vacation, was an additional pleasure.

JOSEPH H. SHEA ARRIVES HERE

Chilian Ambassador Will Spend Two Months in United States Before Returning to Post.

TO LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON

Expects to Return to Seymour in Week or Ten Days for an Extended Visit With Friends.

Hon. Joseph H. Shea, United States Ambassador to Chili, arrived in this city Wednesday evening and is the guest of friends here. He will leave this evening for Washington, D. C., where he will transact official business with the state department.

Ambassador Shea expects to be in Washington a week or ten days, after which he will return here for an extended visit. He is taking his vacation and will spend two months in the United States before returning to Chili.

The Chilian Ambassador stated this afternoon that he is glad to set foot on American soil again, and meet his many friends and acquaintances in Seymour and Jackson county. He reports that the weather is much warmer in the United States than in Chili where the thermometer never soars above 80 degrees and never gets below freezing. Ambassador Shea reports that he is well pleased with Chili. His friends here are planning several affairs for his entertainment following his return here from Washington.

It was rumored here in political circles that the ambassador might be a probable candidate for congressman from the Fourth congressional district. However, friends who have talked with Mr. Shea since his return say that the rumor is unfounded and that he has no intention of resigning his Chilian post to become a congressional candidate.

SEYMOUR BUSINESS COLLEGE SOLD TO MORRIS M. EDGAR

Successful Local Institution Sold by Albert L. Walters, Who Will Enter Auto Industry.

It became known today that Albert L. Walters has sold the Seymour Business College to Morris M. Edgar of Worcester, Mass. For more than two years the local business college has been under the ownership and management of Mr. Walters, who has disposed of the interest in order that practically all of his time may be devoted to the automobile industry.

Since Mr. Walters became the owner of the college the annual enrollment has more than trebled and he has left nothing undone for the up-building of a good, stable institution and to render real service to the young people of southern Indiana, and that he has succeeded goes without saying. Under his manage-

SWIMMING PARTY.

A very delightful swimming party was given Thursday evening in the swimming pool at the city park by the members of the Bachelors' Club.

Those who attended were Miss Elsie Reynolds, Miss Mary Gillespie, Miss Christine Meyer, Miss Margaret McCord, Miss Gertrude Meyer, of Madison, and Miss Katherine Hurt, of San Antonio, Tex. Messrs. R. A. Greeman, Carlyle Allen, John Keegler, Riley Whitman, Will Weathers, Oswald Frey, James Hancock, Louis Cordes, Charles Thomas, C. E. Herth, Herod Stants, O. H. Holder, T. H. Montgomery and Dr. C. E. Gillespie.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rapp, who live near Rockford, entertained a number of friends Thursday evening. The evening was spent informally and light refreshments were served.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Swails, Misses Anna Massman, Mary Misch, Adelaide Miller, Messrs. S. A. Rogers, and Will Vawter, of Nashville.

LITTLE LIGHT BEARERS.

The Little Light Bearers Band of the Presbyterian church, will meet at the church on Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

ment the school has come to be recognized as the leader in Southern Indiana, and among the best in the state. At the college have been trained a numberless line of students who are now located in all parts of the United States, holding positions of trust and responsibility. Through the efforts of Mr. Walters many Seymour girls are in the employ of the government at Washington.

Through his courtesy, good management and likableness, Mr. Walters has won for himself a place in the hearts of the business men of Seymour, as well as with the many students that came to him for instruction, and a successful future for him is predicted.

Mr. Edgar, who now takes possession and management of the school, has for the past twelve years been assistant principal of the Worcester Business Institute, of Worcester, Mass. He was active in shaping the policies of the school which has the largest enrollment of any business college in central New England. During his connection with the school he trained over 11,000 people to enter business life. Among some of his successful students are James W. Behan, stenographer to Admiral Wood, Commandant at Charleston navy yard; Ensign Jacob Reed; Miss Gertrude Napfen with the war department and Miss Frances Moran, with the Red Cross in France. The private secretaries in the four large banks of Worcester, and also the private secretary to the mayor of that city and secretaries of many other prominent executives received their training under Mr. Edgar.

Before his connection with the Worcester Business Institute, he was connected with the Kansas Wesleyan Business College, Salina, Kan. and has had several years of experience in public school teaching both as teacher and principal. He is a specialist in work with young people. He was superintendent of one of the largest Sunday Schools in the State of Massachusetts, which gave him a rousing farewell on his departure. Mrs. Edgar and daughter, Marguerite, arrived in this city Thursday and they will make their home in the flat above the business college.

The local business college is more than sixteen years old having been founded by E. M. Ross.

Misses Olive and Irene Shafer of Alert, visited in this city this morning on their way to Terre Haute to attend the summer school.

G. H. Anderson's Bulletin.

We have just received a large supply of the famous Aviston's Special Patent Flour for wholesale and retail trade. This flour is manufactured out of hard winter wheat and every sack is guaranteed as to quality.

We carry a big stock of bran, middlings and shorts for sale. Schumacher's hog feed is always carried in stock. All of this feed is on the basis of about $10 a ton less than hominy meal but for feeders who prefer hominy meal we will have a full car load coming in.

We have on hands a full stock of Whip-to-will cow peas and also soy beans to be sold at a low price. Farmers can depend on getting a stock of feed here on any day that their wagons come in, and everyone that comes in once and gets our prices will come again.

We have a large stock of scratch feed for chickens and feed for little chicks at a very low price.

A good stock of Pocahontas coal on hands which will last but a few days as we will not handle any more Pocahontas coal this year. Anyone wanting anthracite coal can place orders as we will have an adequate stock. We advise that coal be bought now as the price will surely be higher. G. H. JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE IS VERDICT OF CORONER Holds That John H. Jones Fired the First Shots at Bartholomew County Officers.

Justifiable homicide was the verdict that has been returned by the Bartholomew county coroner following the inquest of the death of John H. Jones, of Indianapolis who died of wounds sustained when he attempted to escape from Columbus officers after he was alleged to have attempted to steal two barrels of whiskey from a Pennsylvania freight car in this city.

The coroner's verdict in full follows:

I find from the above evidence that John Harrison Jones came to his death June 4, 1919, as the result of a running fight with the above named officers in which many shots were exchanged and one or more of said shots had taken effect in his abdominal cavity. I find further that said John H. Jones had repeatedly threatened to kill all of said officers and had attempted to do so and that he succeeded in inflicting a serious wound on the person of Officer John Phillips by shooting him through the left leg and by shooting through his clothing in two other places. In each instance said John H. Jones was always first to shoot. The officers in their hazardous undertaking to capture him fired on him only when forced to do so in self-defense.

I find that said John H. Jones expressed a desire to kill above named officers and attempted to do so after he was mortally wounded, and in order to arrest John H. Jones and to perform their lawful duty it was necessary that said officers—viz: George Smitha, Stanley J. Cooper, John W. Phillips, Jess W. Riddle, O. E. Whiteman, John E. Jones and W. B. Patton—mortally wounded him.

My verdict is this is a case of justifiable homicide.

G. F. CLINE,
County Coroner.

Ralph B. Applewhite, of Brownstown, was in the city this morning enroute to Indianapolis to spend the day on business.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford One Ton Truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. Truck Chassis $550 f.o. b. W. C. T. U. ANNOUNCES DRIVE FOR BIG WELFARE FUND

Local Chapter Will Assist in Work and Asks The Co-operation of the Seymour Public.

The W. C. T. U. is planning to raise a big welfare fund and the local Union will aid in the work. Following the meeting of the Seymour Union yesterday the following announcement was made:

Abraham Lincoln said: "Let reverence for the laws become the political religion of the nation and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars." The people of the United States rejoice in the wonderful stride made in the advancement of prohibition. We see in the short time of its existence the improvement in physical, mental and moral welfare not only of the individual man and his family but of city, state and nation. We are told that laws are violated. Every law ever enacted has been and will be violated. If humanity were perfect there would be no use for laws.

We are told by those who know whereof they speak that concentrated, systematic efforts are being made to annul and prevent the enforcement of the laws for the suppression of intemperance. For this reason and others the Womans Christian Temperance Union of state and nation are attempting to raise a million dollar Jubilee Fund. $1,000,000 fund and 1,000,000 increased membership is the goal. There are scores of departments in addition to enforcement of laws in which this organization works.

Child life in all its phases; Americanization of foreign families are only two of thirty-eight departments of work for the betterment of humanity. Remove intemperance and you remove nine-tenths of the companion evils of the world.

The plan is particularly one of missionary effort—to improve our own nation and to carry the benefits and blessings of prohibition to every country in the world. World Prohibition is the ultimate aim. For this, funds are necessary. A local assessment has been made. No house to house canvass will be made. We realize that much has been done in that way. The local organization simply desires in this way to appeal to the people of Seymour and surrounding country to assist in this most worthy and most necessary call. These wishing to assist to an amount no matter how large or small will please call up by telephone any member of the W. C. T. U. organization.

especially wheat and rye, in the Hayden vicinity by the high wind which accompanied the rain. The grain was blown down and is in such a condition and much of it will not mature. The farmers declare that the wheat heads are now so heavy that the stalks are easily blown over. The wind which swept over the Hayden district Thursday afternoon traveled in a circular motion and the wheat and rye were twisted, with the result that the damage is great. The storm approached from the east and the clouds were black and threatening. Many local people thought that it would pass over this city, but the rain here was very light. East of here, however, the rainfall was much heavier.

Save the Ten Cents.

Beginning June 10, a minimum price of fifteen cents for cash, and an additional ten cents when charged, will be made on all classified or other short locals. If the local is ordered by telephone the money may be sent to the office the same day before it is charged on our books and the extra charge will not be made.

We find the cost of charging these small items, making out bills and collecting them often amounts to more than the local itself. The extra ten cents that will be charged will partly compensate the office for this extra work and expense. But you can save it by paying cash when the local is ordered.

Exception will be made in the case of business firms with whom we have regular monthly accounts.

met Gully about 5 o'clock on that day at the Terminal Station and made arrangements for Gully to meet Miss Wilkins and himself that night. He said Gully failed to keep the appointment, but that while he and Miss Wilkins were at the home of Henry W. Darringer, 269 Hendricks Place, brother-in-law of Miss Wilkins, Gully came to the house. Gully was at the house talking to Miss Wilkins when he left, Kessler said. Immediately after word was received of Gully's arrest Kessler was taken to the detective department from his cell at the County Jail and informed of the fact. Any feeling on the part of detectives that Kessler would be affected by the information was dispelled when Kessler merely said, "I'm glad." He was questioned for about half an hour by Inspector Kinney and Detectives DeRosette and Duncan, but he made no change in his statement that Gully was the last man with Miss Wilkins, as far as he knew. He said his only interest in Miss Wilkins was to effect a reconciliation between the woman and Gully. Gully is said to have been engaged to Miss Wilkins.

The next developments in the case are expected when Gully is brought to Indianapolis and is brought face to face with Kessler and made acquainted with the statements made by Kessler. The police will have to take up with the government authorities the matter of bringing Gully to Indianapolis as he is held by the military authorities on a charge of desertion. Gully deserted from the 10th Infantry at Camp Custer on April 4. Baggage which Kessler and his wife left in Milwaukee, Wis., on the day that they returned to Indianapolis and Kessler gave himself up was returned to Indianapolis yesterday. The police were unable to understand why Kessler left Milwaukee hurriedly, leaving all his baggage behind, and no satisfactory answer to the question was given by Kessler other than that he "just took the notion" to return. No evidence of any importance in regard to the murder case was brought to light by the return of the baggage, Inspector Kinney said.

Oscar Shepard, who has been attending Purdue University, arrived home Thursday night to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shepard.

Lesson Eleven June 15 Second Quarter SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON PRAYER

Matt. 6:5-15; Luke 18:1-14.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.—Phil. 4:6.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—Gen. 18:23-33; Ex. 32:31, 32; Matt. 26:39-46; Luke 11:1-13; John 17:1-26; 1 Thess. 5:17; James 5:16-18.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—Talking with the Heavenly Father.

JUNIOR TOPIC.—Jesus Teaches How to Pray.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC.—Prayer a Privilege and a Duty.

SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC.—The Christian Conception of Prayer.

I. The Proper Motive in Prayer (Matt. 6:5-8).

The righteousness which counts with God is doing right deeds with the right motive. Righteous as the act of praying is it may be an abomination unto God:

1. If it be to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). Much of the public praying is false—when there is more thought of what the people think than of what God thinks. In praying the individual is dealing with God, therefore if he be engaged in it to attract men's attention it is blasphemous. It is not wrong to pray on the street corner and in the synagogues; that which is condemned is doing it to be seen of men.

2. If there be the use of vain repetitions (v. 7). This does not mean that we should ask but once, for we have examples of Christ and of Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:42; 1 Cor. 12:13), but meaningless repetitions as done by the heathen. The reason assigned is that "your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him" (v. 8). We should have a real desire for fellowship with God. Since prayer is a transaction of the soul with God, we should go to our inner chamber, where only God can hear, and there commune with him.

II. The Model Prayer (Matt. 6:9-15).

1. Right relationship. "Our Father." Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright.

2. Right attitude. "Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come." When we realize that we have been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of his dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being made the children of God we cannot help pouring out our souls to him in gratitude and praise, longing for the coming of his kingdom.

3. Right spirit (1). That of trust which looks to him for daily bread. (2) That of love which results in the forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayer of the one who has an unforgiving spirit. (3) That of holiness which moves us to pray not to be led in temptation, and longs to be delivered from the evil one.

4. The ascription of praise. "Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever."

III. Persistence in Prayer (Luke 18:1-8).

The teaching of this parable is that men ought always to pray and not to faint (v. 1). The context shows that praying should be the business of the church while the Lord is absent. Having referred to the coming of the Lord at the close of the preceding chapter he uses this parable to enforce the obligation of the church under the figure of a widow crying day and night unto God. Though the unjust judge had neither fear of God nor regard for man he avenged her of her enemies. Much more, then, will the tender loving Father, God, avenge his own elect (v. 7). God is pleased with those who persistently pray, or, as popularly expressed, "pray through."

IV. The Proper Attitude in Prayer (Luke 18:9-14).

This is brought out in striking contrast by two men praying. The Pharisee's sense of self practically excluded the consciousness of God. The poor publican had a most keen sense of God, and therefore sought his mercy. The Pharisee presented personal credentials, while the publican cast himself upon God's mercy. The publican was justified, while the Pharisee was rejected. Let us come into the presence of God with humility, for God is holy.

SMOTHERING SPELLS

And Dizziness Relieved By Black-Draught, Says Ohio Lady.

Coalton, Ohio.—Mrs. Lucy J. Beatty, of R. F. D. 1, this place, writes: "Some time ago I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach. It seemed there was a hard lump formed in my stomach. This lump was sore and every time I would eat I would feel bloated and pained me terribly. It would seem to come up toward my chest.

I would have smothering spells and feel dizzy. I would start across the floor and would have to sit down. At night I smothered so I couldn't sleep. I would go to bed and wake with a start and feel like I would smother to death... The doctors said it was my age and doctored and doctored, and I didn't get any better.

I was almost discouraged so I began to look around for other remedies and while reading the Almanac I decided to try Black-Draught, which I did. I bought two packages and took it regular for awhile and it cured me and I don't have any more trouble of that kind."

If you suffer from stomach and liver troubles, give Thedford's Black-Draught a trial. It has helped thousands of others—why not you? All druggists. NCB-10

CHAPTER XX.

The Deck Is Ours.

I had the next step carefully outlined in my own mind, and yet I hesitated a moment, glancing into the two faces before me, with a sudden realization of what the contemplated action would mean to all of us, if by any chance it should fail of success. I managed to speak cheerfully, putting a ring of confidence into my voice.

"Then the sooner we act the better. Watkins, have LeVere order these men aft. Let him say that Senor Estada wishes them to break out some stores in the lazaret. They need be here only long enough for us to distribute these arms among them, and for me to speak a word of instruction to them."

"But have I no part? Is there no way in which I can help?" asked the girl.

"You have your pistol? Then remain here. I shall have to go on deck with the men, and will not dare leave them a moment until the ship is absolutely secure. Manuel is locked in that stateroom, but must not be communicated with by anyone. It will be your part to see that Gonsales neither enters that passage leading amidships, nor approaches this door. Keep him in sight. You will save us a man. Wait here now until I see how securely this passage forward is closed."

It was as described to me—a heavy oaken door, nail studded, not only locked, but held firmly in place by a stout iron bar. There was not the faintest possibility of any entrance aft, except through assistance from this side. As I returned to the cabin, Gonsales came out of the captain's room and crossed the deck. At sight of me he stopped instantly.

"Gonsales," I said, "you are to remain in this cabin until I give the word. The lady here has a pistol, and orders to shoot if you attempt to either enter this passage, or approach the door of Manuel's stateroom. How did you find Sanchez?"

"Sitting up in his bunk, senor, and able to eat."

"Does he know what is occurring on board?"

TELL THE WORLD THIS WOMAN SAYS

That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made Me a Well Woman.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I suffered with female troubles for years, was sick most of the time, was not able to do my own housework, and I could not get help from doctors. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and took six bottles, and am a well woman. You can use my name to tell the world that good your medicine has done me as I shall praise it always."—Mrs. A. L. DEVINE, 647 St. Paul Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should do as Mrs. Devine did, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years this famous remedy, which contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, has been correcting just such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"No, senor. He questioned me, but I only told him everything was all right, so far."

In my heart I believed the fellow deliberately lied, but there was no opportunity to question him further, for at that moment the door of the companion opened and a miscellaneous group of men thronged down the stairs. They were a rough hairy lot, here and there a sturdy English countenance meeting my gaze, but the faces were largely foreign, with those of two negroes conspicuous.

"Twelve here, sir; I couldn't get Harwood down from the foretop," said Watkins.

"And there are others below who will join us?"

"Yes, sir; six more I count on."

"Which means lads, that with Harwood, Senor LeVere, and myself, we'll total twenty-one in this shindy. Now I'll tell you what is up. Watkins gave you some of it no doubt, but a word from me will make it clearer. I'm no pirate; I'm an English sailor, shanghied. Estada named me first officer because I understand navigation."

I stopped speaking, staring at one of the faces before me; all at once it appeared familiar. "What is your name, my man?"

"Jim Carter, sir."

"You were on the Sinbad, three years ago?"

"I was that, Mister Carlyle," he answered grinning. "I know'd you the minute I cum down here."

"Then that is all I need say on that line. Here's one of your mates, lads, who will vouch for me. Now, as I've been told, you are all of you in the same boat—you are prisoners on board. Luck has given us a chance to make a break, and get away. Captain Sanchez is wounded and helpless. Pedro Estada is dead, and I've got Manuel locked in that stateroom. His cut-throats are all below, and now all we've got to do is clap on the hatch and keep them there. Now, what I want to know is are you fellows with me?"

Watkins answered up promptly; then Carter; the others joining in with less heartiness, the different accents revealing their nationalities. I knew sailors well enough to feel assured they would follow their leaders once the game started.

"That's good enough; now we've got to hit hard and quick, lads. There are six men on deck who are not with us. Watkins will take care of them with those fellows I don't assign to other work. Jones, you and Carter make straight for the forecabin and don't let anyone come up the scuttle. One of you had better drop down below, and prevent any of those lads from unbarring the door leading amidships. Who is the best for that job?"

"Let Carlson do it."

"All right—Carlson it is then. You Frenchmen, and the two negroes, your part will be to ship the main hatch. Do a quick job, and clamp it down tight."

"I'll come down to you Carlson, as soon as we have the deck. It ought not to take more than five minutes to handle those lads, and slew around a carronade. Watkins, you and Carter hand out the cutlasses from the rack; you boys will handle those better than firearms. Good; now are you all ready?"

There was a low murmur of voices, the faces watching me showing their increasing excitement and eagerness. Our little talk had served to arouse their confidence in my leadership, and with gleaming weapons in their hands they became self-reliant volunteers. Once turned loose my greatest difficulty might be to restrain them, rather than urge them on. Revenge for past wrongs was in each heart, and they welcomed a chance to strike.

I whispered a parting word of admonition into the ear of Dorothy, receiving in return a glance from her eyes, which gave a new throb to my heart; then straightened up, and pistol in hand, pushed my way through the throng of sailors to the foot of the stairs.

"Follow me, lads," I said quietly.

We emerged through the companion, and I stepped aside as the others rushed by. There was no shout, no cheer, the fellows seeming to realize the desperate nature of their work, and the importance of surprise. They were outnumbered five to one, and their only hope of success lay in rendering their opponents helpless before they could rally to a defense. All the pent-up hate of years was in their hearts, blazed madly in their eyes; they were tigers leaping at the throat of their prey, yet sane enough to comprehend even in their blood-rage that they must act together. It was over so quickly I scarcely saw it all. My eyes swept from group to group—the four tolling at the cover of the main hatch; the fellows racing toward the forecabin; and Watkins' squad driving straight into the grouped watch beyond the foremast. It was smartly done; Watkins had taken no cutlass, but went in with both fists, asking no questions, but battering right and left, his men surging after, with steel blades flaming in the sunlight. The astounded watch, cursing and fighting grimly, held for a moment, and then went staggering back against the port rail, unable to stem the rush, and roaring for mercy. I had view of Carlson dropping recklessly down the forecabin scuttle, and then sprang forward myself to give a hand to the four wrestling with the main hatch. Together we dragged it into position, forcing relentlessly back as we did so, a dozen struggling figures frantically endeavoring to reach the deck. Shots were fired, the bullets whistling through the opening, the flare lighting up the black depths below, revealing vaguely a mass of frantic men staring up, and cursing us fiercely in a dozen languages; but, in spite of them, we clamped the hatch down tight, and locked it securely into place with an iron bar.

Watkins needed no help; he had his party rounded up. To my orders they were driven into the cook's galley and a guard stationed at the door. Then I turned to the more serious work confronting me in the forecabin. We must have men enough to sail the bark, and if I was to command them, I must first of all prove my courage and enforce authority. The whole success of our effort depended on this.

"What's going on below?" I asked.

"Cursin' mostly," answered Carter, peering down through a slight uplighting of the scuttle. "They don't just know what's happening yet, but the big nigger seems ter be raisin' hell. Carlson is a holdin' him back with his cutlass."

"Open up and let me down."

I fell, rather than clambered along the rungs of the ladder, coming to my feet on deck in the midst of a group of angry men. The light was so poor I could scarcely see their faces; a babel of voices greeted me, and more than one hand gripped me fiercely as the excited owner yelled a demand to know what in hell we were up to. I roughly cleared a space, aided by Carlson's cutlass, and fronted them. Towering above them all, his black apple face, distorted with rage, I distinguished the giant Cochose, his immense hands grasping a wooden bar ripped from a bunk. Plainly enough he was the leader. If I was to rule, this black brute must be conquered at the very start, conquered by my own hands, and in the presence of his mates.

"Stand back there lads," I said sternly. "I'll explain all that has happened presently, but first I am going to lick that black within an inch of his life. Step out of there, Cochose."

He came grinning widely, balancing the heavy club.

"You mean me, sah? You all think yer kin lick me?"

"Yes, I think so; I'll try it anyway. Here Carlson, take this pistol and sheath knife. If anyone interferes shoot him. All I ask is fair play. Drop that club, Cochose, and throw away your knife. You and I will fight this out with bare hands."

His dull brain worked slowly, and he stared at me, his eyes ugly. His silence and lack of response, awoke a growl from the impatient circle of

APPEAL MADE URGES ACTION FROM OTHERS

Health Being Restored, Mrs. Sanders Publicly Praises Trutona—Hopes Many Will Heed Advice.

Evansville, Ind., June 12—"Trutona is restoring my health and doing it in record time, too," Mrs. Frank Sanders, a well known Evansville woman of 1128 West Illinois street, said recently. "I'm glad to recommend Trutona to the women of this city," she added.

"My system generally was in bad condition when I began using Trutona," Mrs. Sanders continued, "I was troubled with nervousness and constipation continually bothered me. It seemed that I had the headache constantly. The back of my head and neck ached terribly. My appetite wasn't very good and I didn't sleep well at night."

"I finally came to the conclusion that if Trutona was doing so much good for other women it surely would do the same for me. And it has. Why, I haven't felt so good in a long time as I do today and I've taken only one bottle of Trutona. I have noticed a considerable improvement in my appetite. My nerves are in so much better condition that it's a great deal easier for me to sleep well at night now. I have been relieved of the headaches that formerly bothered me. It is because of this relief that I'm glad to indorse Trutona."

LODGE MEMBER HAS SOLVED HIS PROBLEM

Evansville, Ind., June 12—William Homburg, 118 Sontag avenue, Forest Hill, is a member of two local lodges and the Evansville Carpenter's Union. He is well known here. Mr. Homburg says of Trutona:

"I'd had indigestion for the past three years. Gas formations and bloating invariably bothered me after meals. I didn't dare eat any fried food stuffs."

"I'm better every way since taking Trutona, however. I can eat fried eggs, meat or anything now without suffering bad after effects. Trutona has done me more good than all the other means I've ever tried."

TRUTONA THE PERFECT TONIC

Is now being introduced and explained in Seymour, Indiana, at William L. Federmann's drug store men behind. One fellow kicked the club out of his hand contemptuously, and another plucked the knife from his belt.

"You big skulker," the latter said, with an oath of derision, "go on, and fight!"

"What for Ah fight this white man?"

Ah don't even know who he is."

"Then I'll tell you. Estada is dead; Manuel is a prisoner. I'm in command of this bark. You are a big,

Wm. L. Federmann to Give Away
Three Dozen Bottles of Trutona Saturday Morning.

DETAILS SUBMITTED

William L. Federmann, Seymour's leading druggist, invites the public of this city to call at his store Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, where thirty-six bottles of Trutona, the perfect tonic, that has recently won such phenomenal success in other cities will be given away.

Thirty-six men and women of Seymour will positively be presented with a one-dollar bottle of Trutona. After the thirty-six bottles have been distributed Trutona will be placed on sale under the supervision of an expert from the Trutona laboratories, who will explain the celebrated medicine and offer suggestions as to how to use it in order to obtain the best results.

The distribution of free Trutona will be governed by the following rules:

- (1) Only one bottle to the person.
- (2) Requests of minors will not be considered.
- (3) Applicants for the free medicine must explain their condition. The Trutona will be given them provided, in the opinion of the expert the medicine fits their case.
- (4) Distribution begins promptly at 9:30 a. m. and lasts until 36 bottles of Trutona have been given away.

Trutona is an extraordinary tonic and a system purifier that has no superior. It is especially recommended for catarrhal affections of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Its use as a tonic following pneumonia, influenza, hard colds and the like is most beneficial as hundreds have testified. Trutona is Nature's chief ally.

BELIEVES SUCCESS IS POSITIVELY ASSURED

Mrs. Bixler Confident All Will Find Relief in Trutona.

Vincennes, Ind., June 12—"Try Trutona and you will be sure to gain relief," Mrs. Charles Bixler, 814 Car. bon street, said recently.

"I'd suffered with nervousness, stomach trouble and pains around my heart for over a year. I couldn't sleep well and I seldom wanted breakfast in the morning. Generally I was weak and run down."

"But I sleep fine at night and get up feeling refreshed, since taking Trutona. I really enjoy my meals now and never suffer the former bad after effects. The pains around my heart have ceased to bother me, also. It's because of this that I'm sure others may be aided by Trutona."

MINISTER AND WIFE READILY OFFER PRAISE

The Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Benicke Entertain High Regards for Trutona—Both Grateful.

Louisville, Ky., June 12—Trutona has won a place in the hearts of two more well known Louisville residents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Benicke, 3011 South Fourth street. The Rev. Mr. Benicke is pastor of the South Louisville Presbyterian Church and both he and his wife are highly respected in the South Fourth street neighborhood. The following statement was made recently by Mrs. Benicke.

"Like many other people I was in a generally run down condition as a result of a recent attack of influenza. The food I ate never seemed to digest properly and I was troubled with constipation. My limbs felt weak and trembly—so bad at times, that I couldn't climb the stairs without literally pulling myself up by means of the banister."

"Trutona has really put me on my feet again. The food I eat digests properly now and I've been entirely relieved of the constipation. I think most highly of Trutona as a laxative and tonic. My husband was also a victim of influenza. He has been taking Trutona, too. We are both grateful for what Trutona has done for us."

RAILROAD CONDUCTOR IS FIRMLY CONVINCED

Louisville, Ky., June 12—A. Jackson, a passenger conductor in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad for many years, who lives at 220 North Eighteenth street, Louisville, has the following to say of Trutona:

"I want to express to you my appreciation of the merits of Trutona. I feel like a new man after taking this medicine for two weeks."

"I'd had neuritis and had been troubled with general debility for eleven years. Since taking Trutona, however, I eat heartily and sleep soundly, too, a thing I couldn't do before. I don't hesitate in recommending Trutona."

Grain Price Regulation.

Indianapolis, June 13.—Recent government regulations of prices of and speculation in grain were to be discussed by the Indiana Grain Dealers' Association, which opened its midsummer meeting here today. The grain men came from the majority of Hoosier counties and assembled in the Board of Trade.

46 ARE GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL

Central Christian church, and the benediction was said by the Rev. J.
H. More, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Featuring the evening's program were enjoyable musical selections. The high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Doris Geile, director of music in the city school, rendered several highly appreciated numbers and the high school chorus, under the leadership of Miss Geile, won merited applause following a selection. James Himler, a Senior, played a beautiful flute solo, accompanied by Miss Helen Clark, piano, also a member of the class. Miss Omega Wheaton, a 1919 graduate, rendered a delightful pipe organ selection in a manner that showed unusual ability and Misses Lillian Griffiths and Helen Dannettelle, members of the class, played a violin duet which met with the complete approval of the audience as manifested by the generous applause.
